

Parents Roles and Responsibilities

1. Communication:

1.1 Parents are required to provide up-to-date contact information, including phone numbers, and emails.

1.2 Parents are required to use central hub, BAND app for important updates, schedules, and resources.

1.3 Parents are responsible to share relevant information about the challenges, and preferences.

1.4 Parents are responsible to update child's changes in support needs.

1.5 Parents are expected to maintain open and regular communication with coaches, and program organizers.

2. Attendance:

2.1 Parents are expected to ensure their child's regular attendance at practices, games, and events to the best of their ability.

2.2 In case of unavoidable absences, parents are required to communicate with coaches or program organizers in advance.

3. Safety and Supervision:

3.1 Participants should not be left unattended before, during, or after scheduled activities.

4. Feedback and Concerns:

4.1 Parents are encouraged to provide constructive feedback on the program's schedule or any concerns related to attendance.

4.2

By actively participating in these roles and responsibilities, parents contribute significantly to creating a positive and inclusive sports environment for their children. Parent's support and engagement play a vital role in the overall success and enjoyment of the sports experience for their child and the entire sports community.